CONVOCATION OF ARCHBISHOP LAW

In Loving Memory of Dawn M. Acheson

After a while you learn the subtle difference
Between holding a hand and chaining a soul,
And you learn that love doesn't mean leaning
And company doesn't mean security.
And you begin to learn that kisses aren't contracts
And presents aren't promises, and you begin to Accept your defeats with your head up
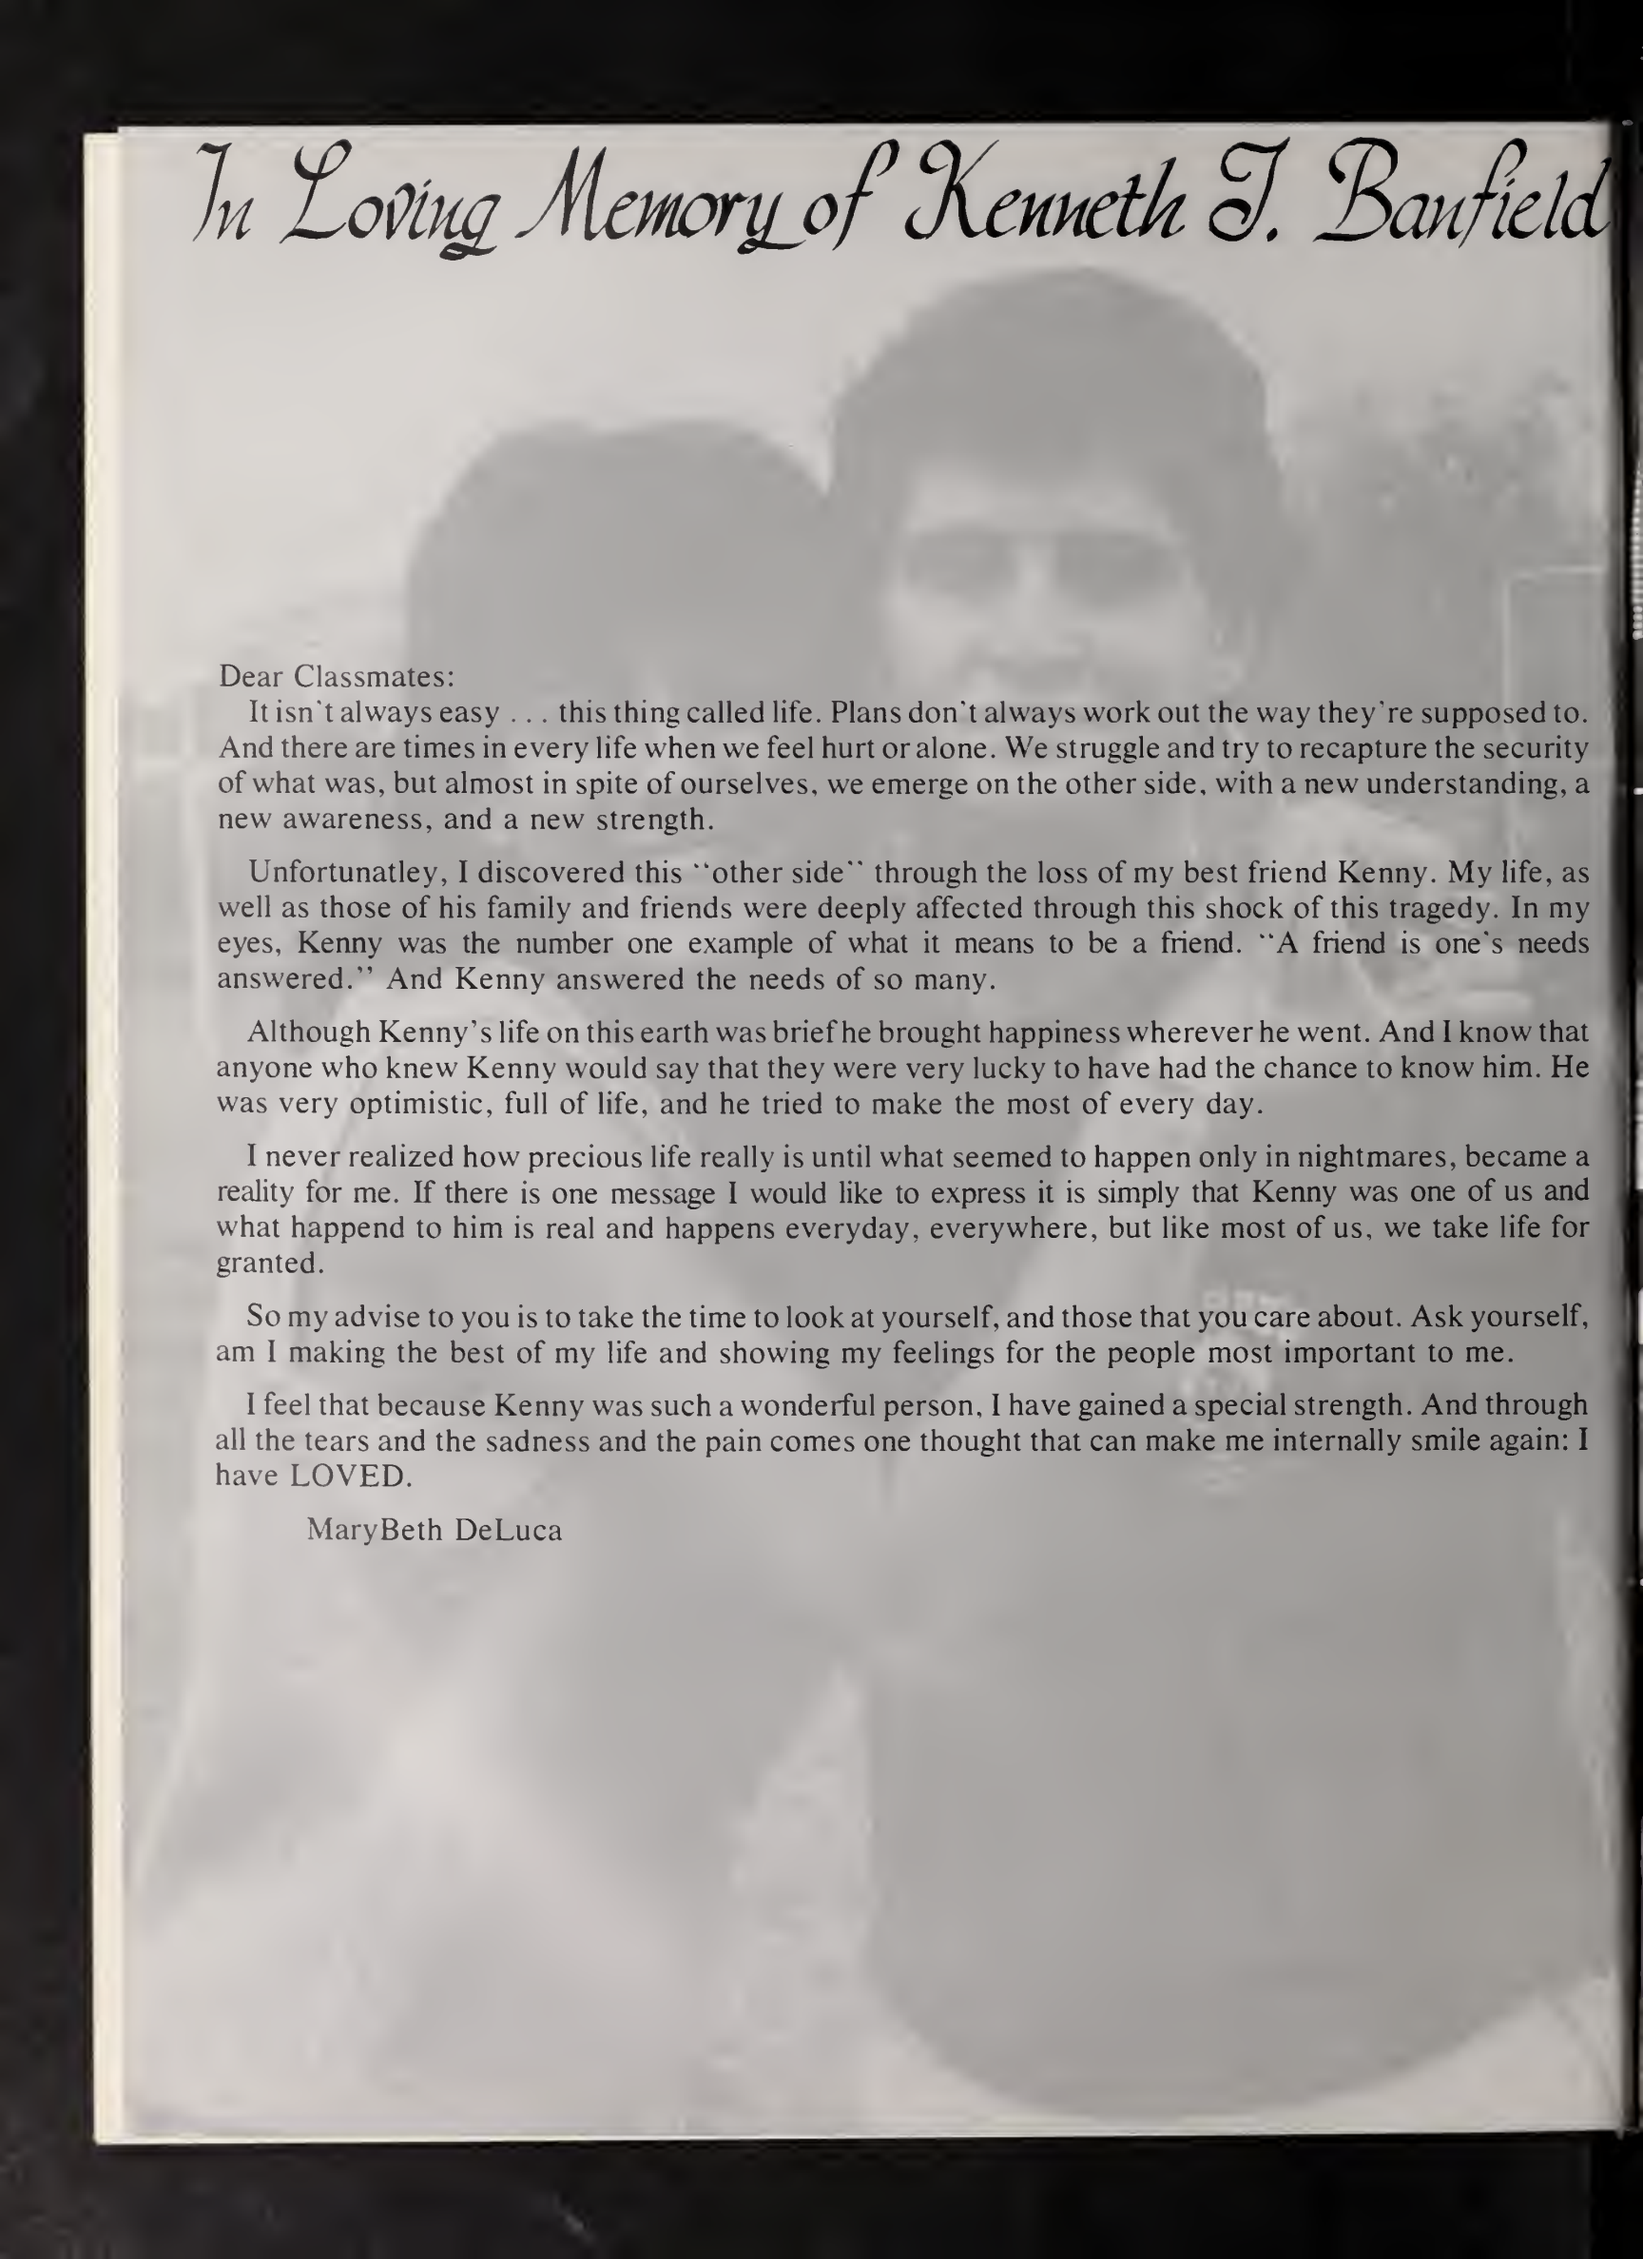
And your eyes open, with the grace of a women,
Not the grief of a child, and learn to build all
Your roads on today because tomorrows ground
Is too uncertain for plans, and fidures have
A way of falling down in mid-flight.
After a while you learn that even sunshine
Burns if you get too much.
So you plant your own garden and decorate
Your own soul, instead of waiting
For someone to bring you flowers.
And you learn that you really can endure...

* * * * *

That you really are strong, and you really do have worth.
And you learn and learn... with every goodbye
You learn.

In Loving Memory of Kenneth J. Banfield



Dear Classmates:

It isn't always easy . . . this thing called life. Plans don't always work out the way they're supposed to. And there are times in every life when we feel hurt or alone. We struggle and try to recapture the security of what was, but almost in spite of ourselves, we emerge on the other side, with a new understanding, a new awareness, and a new strength.

Unfortunatley, I discovered this "other side" through the loss of my best friend Kenny. My life, as well as those of his family and friends were deeply affected through this shock of this tragedy. In my eyes, Kenny was the number one example of what it means to be a friend. "A friend is one's needs answered." And Kenny answered the needs of so many.

Although Kenny's life on this earth was brief he brought happiness wherever he went. And I know that anyone who knew Kenny would say that they were very lucky to have had the chance to know him. He was very optimistic, full of life, and he tried to make the most of every day.

I never realized how precious life really is until what seemed to happen only in nightmares, became a reality for me. If there is one message I would like to express it is simply that Kenny was one of us and what happend to him is real and happens everyday, everywhere, but like most of us, we take life for granted.

So my advise to you is to take the time to look at yourself, and those that you care about. Ask yourself, am I making the best of my life and showing my feelings for the people most important to me.

I feel that because Kenny was such a wonderful person, I have gained a special strength. And through all the tears and the sadness and the pain comes one thought that can make me internally smile again: I have LOVED.

MaryBeth DeLuca

All to myself I think of you
Think of the things we used to do
Think of the things we used to say
Think of each happy yesterday
Sometimes I sigh, and sometimes
I smile, but I keep each olden golden while all to myself.

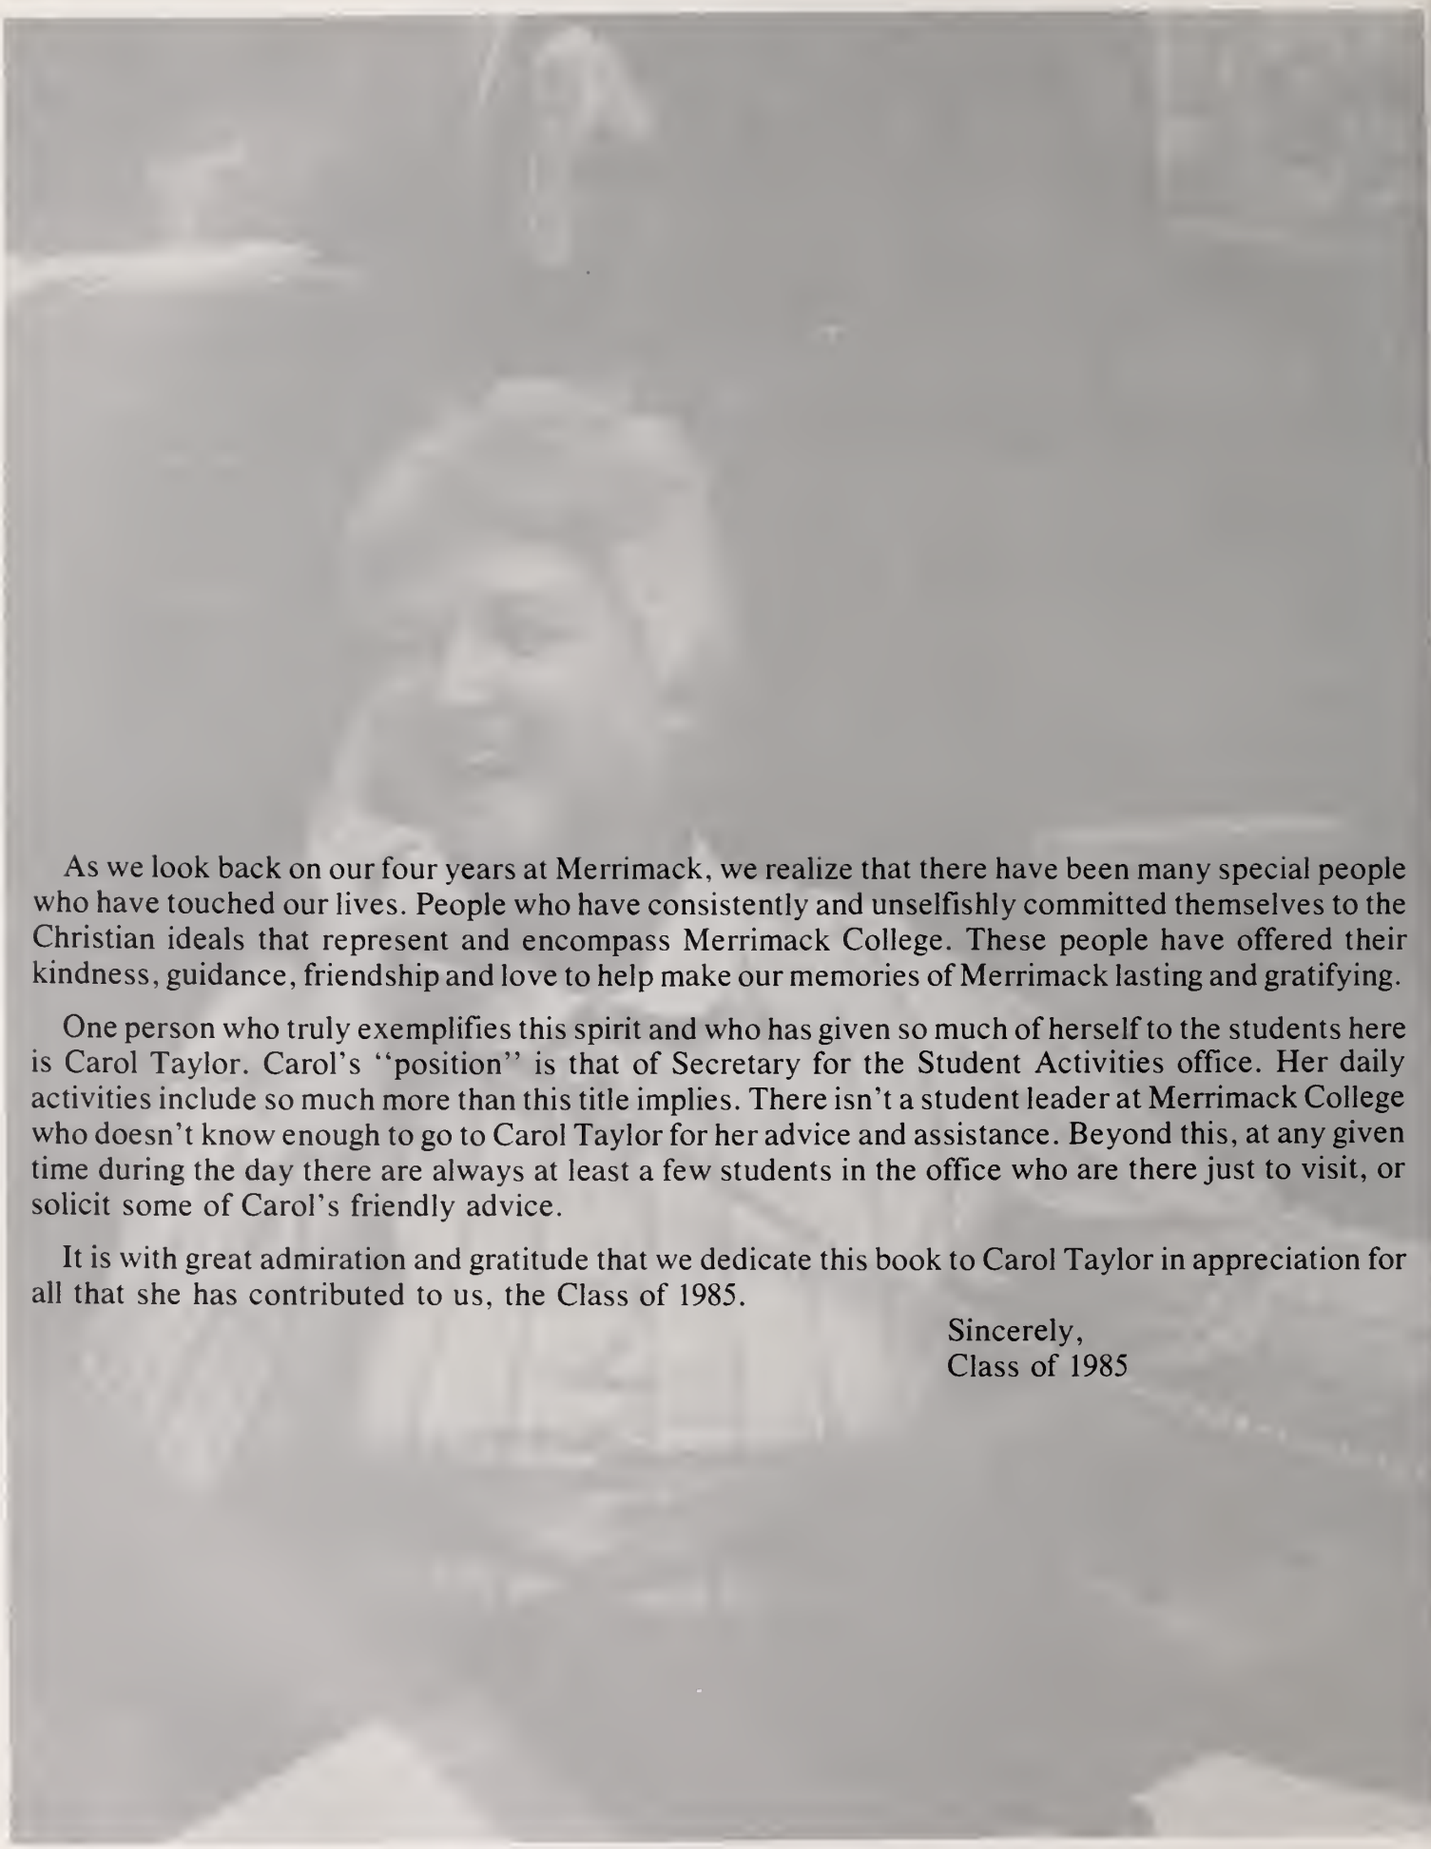
Wilbur D Nesbit



As we look back on our four years at Merrimack, we realize that there have been many special people who have touched our lives. People who have consistently and unselfishly committed themselves to the Christian ideals that represent and encompass Merrimack College. These people have offered their kindness, guidance, friendship and love to help make our memories of Merrimack lasting and gratifying.

One person who truly exemplifies this spirit and who has given so much of herself to the students here is Carol Taylor. Carol's "position" is that of Secretary for the Student Activities office. Her daily activities include so much more than this title implies. There isn't a student leader at Merrimack College who doesn't know enough to go to Carol Taylor for her advice and assistance. Beyond this, at any given time during the day there are always at least a few students in the office who are there just to visit, or solicit some of Carol's friendly advice.

It is with great admiration and gratitude that we dedicate this book to Carol Taylor in appreciation for all that she has contributed to us, the Class of 1985.

Sincerely,
Class of 1985

"Special" is a word
that is used to describe something one-of-a-kind like a hug
or a sunset
or a person who spreads love
with a smile or a kind gesture.
"Special" describes people
who act from the heart
and keep in mind the hearts
of others
"Special" applies to something that is admired and precious
and which can never be replaced.
"Special" is the word that best describes you.

HOPE

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has helped to make the 1985 Merrimackan a success. Specifically, we would like to thank Kathy Kirby, who helped with every aspect of the book from design to layout. Kathy, layout editor, spent many long hours working towards the completion of this book. She is definitely irreplaceable. The following people have also been extremely generous in giving their time and effort to the completion of this book.

Layout Staff: Doreen Hallisey, Anne Marie Burns, Andrea Grainger, Manny Quintana, Susan Affanato, Susan Tattan, Gretchen Goodrow, and Betsy Rourke.

Photography Staff: Paula Twomey (Editor), LuAnne Cuccard, Jen Looney, and Jane Mooney.

Art Staff: Sue Desmarais (Editor), and Lisa DeLuca.

On behalf of the staff we would like to give a special thanks to Guy Garon of Hunter Publishing Co., Paul McCarthy, Morse Studios, Father Shaw, Jill Arsenault, and our advisor Mrs. Betty Lee for their individual contributions to the book.

The goal of the 1985 Merrimackan Staff was to try to help capture the many events that will bring back fond memories of your years at Merrimack College. We hope this yearbook will help rekindle your experiences in ways which will have special meanings to all.

Good Luck and best wishes for now and for always! God bless.
